Bellevue High School

Foreword

We find ourselves in an era which will rightly be called the Modern Age. Life is moving at a rapidly increasing rate. However, we took time out to determine the implications of this Modern Age and its effects upon us at Bellevue High School. We discovered that the motive for all our activities, curricular and extra curricular, is the need for learning. We must learn to live together, to work together, and to play together. How we try to accomplish this learning is expressed here by A Modern Design For Our Living, our theme for '56.

MUSICAL EVENTS

During 1955-56 the instrumental music department included Marching Band, Concert Band, Pep Band, and Orchestra.

The Marching Band appeared at all football games at home and away. They performed new and entertaining half-time shows at games. One of the highlights of the band activity was an invitation to appear at a Cleveland Brown's football game on December 11. The Band also marched for various parades in Bellevue. The League Band Festival was held May 11 at Shelby.

Symphonic or Concert Band made its appearance at the Band Concert in April. All members of Marching Band are expected to play in the Concert Band.

Pep Band gave out with lively music at pep meetings and at home basketball games. Intermission entertainment at basketball games was provided by members. The Dance Band furnished music for several after game dances and filled other out-of-school engagements. Mr. Duane Corbett is Band Director.

The Orchestra played before both class plays, for the National Honor Society Assembly and for Baccalaureate and Commencement. A demonstration Concert was given for all grade schools. The Formal Orchestra Concert was held on the same night as the Formal Vocal Concert. The orchestra traveled to Port Clinton for the League Festival. Mrs. John Everson was director.

GOODBYE TO BELLEVUE HIGH

We are the class of '56,
Now is the time to say good-bye,
We shall remember all our lives,
The years we've spent at Bellevue High.

Class colors—light green and white,
White as the stars that shine above,
Green as the new spring grass that comes
To us from God with love.

We are not blue; Life has its way;
The sun is rising on a new day.
Today we follow; Tomorrow we lead—
This is our motto, to guide our deeds.

The things we've learned
No fire can burn,
Nor passing of time can fade away.
Our fond memories we shall keep forever,
Good-bye to Bellevue High.
